Editor, THE REPORT, 4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission of the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

THE LAWS OF OHIO RELATING TO DESCENT & DISTRIBUTION OF PERSONAL ESTATES, TO 1831

CAROL WILLSEY BELL, C.G.*, 4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, OH 44512

It is sometimes necessary to refer to Ohio Law to discover which portion of the law was in effect at a certain time period, particularly when dealing with an intestate estate. The laws of descent and distribution determined the way property would be distributed to the heirs, and may become an important factor in genealogical research. These laws have frequently been used to prove that an "heir at law" must be a child of the decedent, rather than a brother or sister, or some other relative....provided that the preponderance of evidence shows that at least one person is a child of the intestate. Since the actual volumes of OHIO LAWS are often difficult to locate, each of the laws through the year 1831, is copied here to assist the researcher.

To insure that all revisions and amendments to the laws have been included, AN INDEX TO THE STATUTE LAW OF THE STATE OF OHIO by Homer F. Jordan (Cincinnati, the compiler: 1881) has been consulted. Jordan completely indexed the laws under the Constitution of 1802, and the Constitution of 1851, and each citation has been checked for purposes of this article.

Definitions of the more common terms used in these laws have been checked in BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY, by Henry C. Black (St.Paul: West Publishing Co., 1979). These definitions appear at the end of the article.

THE STATUTES OF OHIO AND OF THE NORTHWESTERN TERRITORY ADOPTED OR ENACTED FROM 1788 TO 1833 INCLUSIVE

Edited by Salmon P. Chase, 1833

2. The condition of this obligation is such, that if the within bounden, A.B.administrator of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of C.D. deceased, do make, or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, which have or shall come to the hands, possession or knowledge of him the said A.B. or into the hands and possession of any other person or persons, for him; and the same so made, do exhibit, or cause to be exhibited into the office of the court of probate in the county of _____ at or before the ____day of _____ next ensuing; and the same goods, chattels and credits, and all other the goods, chattels and credits of the said deceased, at the time of his death, which, at any time after, shall come to the hands or possession of the said A.B. or into the hands and possession of any other persons, or persons, for him, do well and truly administer, according to law, and further do make or cause to be made, a true and just account of his said administration, at or before the ____day of _____ and all the rest and residue of the said goods, chattels and credits, which shall be found remaining upon the said administrator's account (the same being first examined and allowed of by the orphans' court, of the county where the said administration is granted) shall deliver and pay unto such person or persons respectively, as the said orphans' court in the respective county, by their decree or sentence, pursuant to the true intent and meaning of law, shall limit and appoint. And if it shall hereafter appear, that any last will and testament was made by the said deceased, and the executor or executors therein named do exhibit the same into the said probate office, making request to have it allowed and approved accordingly; if the said A.B. within bound, being thereunto required, do render and deliver the said letters of administration, approbation of such testament being first had, and made in the said probate office; then this obligation to be void and of none effect, or else to remain in full force and virtue.

3. Which bonds are hereby declared to be good, to all intents and purposes, and pleadable in any courts of justice. And also the said orphans' court, in the respective counties, shall and may, and are hereby enabled to proceed and call such administrators to account, for and touching the goods of any person dying intestate; and upon hearing, and due consideration thereof, to order and make just and equal distribution of what remaineth clear after all debts, funeral and just expenses of every sort, first allowed and deducted according to the ordinance of congress, for the government of the territory, and to the rules and limitations hereafter set down: and the same distributions to declare and settle, and to compel such administrators to observe and pay the same, by the due course of the laws of this territory; saving to every one supposing him or themselves aggrieved, their right of appeal to the general or circuit court.

4. Provided always, That in case any child who shall have any estate by settlement from the intestate, or shall be advanced by the said intestate, in his life time, by portion, not equal to the share which will be due to the other children, by such distribution as aforesaid; then so much of the surplusage of the estate of such intestates, to be distributed to such child or children as shall have any land, by settlement from the intestate, or were advanced in the life time of the intestate, as shall make the estate of all the said children to be equal, as nearly as can be estimated. And in case there be no children, nor any legal representatives of them; then one moiety of the said estate to be alloted to the wife of the intestate; and the residue of the said estate, to be distributed equally, to every of the next kindred, of the intestate, who are in equal degree, and those who legally represent them. Provided, That there be no representatives admitted among collaterals, after brothers' and sisters' children: and in case there be no wife; then all the said estate to be distributed equally to and among the children: and in case there be no children to the next of kin in equal degree, of or unto the intestate, and their legal representatives, as aforesaid; and in no other manner whatsoever.

5. Provided also, And to the end, that a due regard be had to creditors, that no such distribution of the goods of any person dying intestate, be made, till after one year be fully expired, after the intestate's death; and that such and every one to whom any distribution and share shall be allotted, shall give bond, with sufficient sureties, in the said orphans' court:

that if any debt or debts, truly owing by the intestate, shall be afterwards sued for and recovered, or otherwise duly made to appear; that then, and in every such case, he or she shall respectively refund and pay back to the administrator, his or her rateable part of that debt or debts, and of the costs of suit and charges of the administrator, by reason of such debts, out of the part and share so, as aforesaid, allotted to him or her; thereby to enable the said administrator to pay and satisfy the said debt or debts so discovered, after the distribution made, as aforesaid.

6. Provided always, That in all cases where, by law, administration with the will annexed ought to be granted, the judge of probate shall grant administration accordingly.

7. If any person or persons shall die intestate, being owners of lands or tenements within this territory at the time of their death, and leave lawful issue to survive them, but not a sufficient personal estate to pay their just debts and maintain their children; in such case, it shall be lawful for the administrator or administrators of such deceased to sell and convey such part or parts of the said lands or tenements, for defraying their just debts, maintenance of their children, and for putting them apprentices, and teaching them to read and write, and for improvement of the residue of the estate, if any be, to their advantage, as the orphans' court of the county, where such estate lies, shall think fit to allow, order and direct, from time to time.

8. Provided always, That no lands or tenements, contained in any marriage settlement, shall, by virtue of this law be sold or disposed of, contrary to the form and effect of such settlement: nor shall any orphans' court, allow or order any intestate's lands or tenements to be sold, before the administrator, requesting the same, doth exhibit one or more true and perfect inventories and conscionable appraisement of all the intestate's personal estate whatsoever; as also a just and true account, upon his or her solemn oath or affirmation, of all the intestate's debts which shall be then come to his or her knowledge; and if thereupon it shall appear to the court, that the intestate's personal estate will not be sufficient to pay the debts and maintain the children, until the eldest of them attains the age of twenty-one years, or to put them out to be apprentices, and teach them to read and write then and in every such case, and not otherwise, the court shall allow such administrator to make public sale of so much of the said lands as the court, upon the best computation they can make of the value thereof; shall judge necessary for the purposes aforesaid; reserving the mansion-house and most profitable part of the estate till the last. But before any such sale be made, the court shall order so many writings to be made by the clerk, upon parchment or good paper, as the court shall think fit, to signify and give notice of such sales, and of the day and hour when, and the place where the same will be, and what lands are to be sold, and where they lie: which notice shall be delivered to the sheriff or constables, in order to be fixed in the most public places of the county or city, at least ten days before sale; and the sheriffs or constables are hereby required to make publication accordingly: and the administrator that makes such sale shall bring his or her proceedings therein to the next orphans' court, after the sale made. And if it shall happen that any lands be sold, by virtue of this law for more than the court's computation of the value thereof: then the administrator shall be accountable for the same, as by this law is required for intestates' personal estates.

Bastards also, shall be capable of inheriting or of transmitting inheritance, on the part of their mother in like manner as if they had been lawfully begotten of such mother.

Sec.1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That when any person shall die intestate, having title or right to any real estate of inheritance in this State, which title shall have come to such intestate by descent, devise, or deed of gift, from any ancestor, such estate shall descend and pass in parcenary to his or her kindred, in the following course: First, To the children of such intestate, or their legal representatives: Second, If there be no children or their legal representatives, the estate shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, who may be of the blood of the ancestor from whom the estate came, or their legal representatives, whether such brothers and sisters be of the whole or the half blood of the intestate: Third, If there be no brothers or sisters of the intestate, of the blood of the ancestor from whom the estate came, or their legal representatives, and if the estate came by deed of gift, from an ancestor who may be living, the estate shall ascend to such ancestor. Fourth, if the ancestor from whom the estate came be deceased, the estate shall pass to the brothers and sisters of such ancestor, or their legal representatives; and for want of such brothers or sisters, or their legal representatives, to the brothers and sisters of the intestate of the half blood, or their legal representatives, though such brothers and sisters be not of the blood of the ancestor from whom the estate came: Fifth, If there be no brothers or sisters of the intestate, or their legal representatives, the estate shall pass to the next of kin to the intestate of the blood of the ancestor from whom the estate came.

Sec.6. That if the father and mother be dead, the estate shall pass to the next of kin to, and of, the blood of the intestate.

Sec.7. That when any person shall die intestate, or who has heretofore died intestate, leaving no one of kin of the blood of such intestate; or if the kin or heirs of the blood of such intestate be aliens, residing out of this State; the estate of such intestate shall pass to, and be vested in, the husband or wife, relict of such intestate, unless such alien or aliens shall appear and prosecute his, her, or their claim, within ten years after the death of such intestate: Provided, That the alien heir of any intestate who has heretofore died, shall be allowed fifteen years from the death of such intestate, to assert his or her claim to the estate of such intestate.

DEFINITIONS OF LEGAL TERMS

(source: BLACK'S LAW DICTIONARY)

CAPITA: Heads, and figuratively, entire bodies, whether of persons or animals. Persons individually considered, without relation to others (polls); as distinguished from stirpes or stocks of descent. The term in this sense, making part of the common phrases, in capita, per capita, is derived from the civil law.

CHATTEL: An article of personal property, as opposed to real property. A thing personal and movable. It may refer to animate as well as inanimate property.

CONSANGUINITY: Kinship; blood relationship; the connection or relation of persons descended from the same stock or common ancestor. Consanguinity is distinguished from "affinity," which is the connection existing in consequence of a marriage, between each of the married persons and the kindred of the other. Lineal and collateral consanguinity. Lineal consanguinity is that which subsists between persons of whom one is descended in a direct line from the other, as between son, father, grandfather, greatgrandfather, and so upwards in the direct ascending line; or between son, grandson, greatgrandson and so downwards in the direct descending line. Collateral consanguinity is that which subsists between persons who have the same ancestors, but who do not descend (or ascend) one from the other. Thus, father and son are related by lineal consanguinity, uncle and nephew by collateral sanguinity.

DISTRIBUTION: The giving out or division among a number, sharing or parceling out, allotting, dispensing, apportioning. Probate: The apportionment and division, under authority of court, of the remainder of the estate of an intestate, after payment of the debts and charges, among those legally entitled to share in the same.

DOWER: The provision which the law makes for a widow out of the lands or tenements of her husband, for her support and the nurture of her children.. A species of life-estate which a woman is, by law, entitled to claim on the death of her husband, in the lands and tenements of which he was seised in fee during the marriage, and which her issue, if any, might by possibility have inherited. The life estate to which every married woman is entitled on death of her husband, intestate, or in case she dissents from his will, one-third in value of all lands of which husband was beneficially seized in law or in fact, at any time during coverture. Dower has been abolished in the majority of the states and materially altered in most of the others.

INTESTATE: Without making a will. A person is said to die intestate when he dies without making a will, or dies without leaving anything to testify what his wishes were with respect to the disposal of his property after his death. The word is also often used to signify the person himself. Thus, in speaking of the property of a person who died intestate, it is common to say "the intestate's property."

LEGAL REPRESENTATIVE: The term in its broadest sense, means one who stands in place of, and represents the interest of, another. A person who oversees the legal affairs of another. Examples include the executor or administrator of an estate and a court appointed guardian of a minor or incompetent person.

MOIETY: The half of anything. Joint tenants are said to hold by moieties.

PARCENER: A joint heir; one who, with others, holds an estate in co-parcenary.

PER STIRPES: In old English law, stock; a stock; a source of descent or title.

MAHONING [TRUMBULL] COUNTY POLL LISTS, 1807 & 1811

Jocelyn Fox Wilms*

Poll lists of "eligible voters" in Trumbull County are housed in the Western Reserve Historical Society, Cleveland, Ohio. They are a part of "The Elisha Whittlesey Papers," Manuscript #1297, Folder #2. Permission has been granted by WRHS for publication of the lists, and copies of the originals have been placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. The Trumbull County townships which are included below, Austintown, Boardman, Canfield, Coitsville, Ellsworth, Poland, and Youngstown, all became a part of Mahoning County upon its formation in 1846.

The Constitution of the State of Ohio of 1802, Article IV, Section 1, states: "In all elections, all white male inhabitants above the age of twenty-one years, having resided in the state one year next preceding the election, and who have paid or are charged with a state or county tax, shall enjoy the right of an elector; but no person shall be entitled to vote, except in the county or district in which he shall actually reside at the time of the election."
[THE U.S. AND OHIO CONSTITUTIONS ANNOTATED, 1913, Cincinnati, W.H.Anderson Co., 1913]

The headings on each list vary slightly. An example is, "Poll book of the election held in the Township of Poland in the County of Trumbull on the 8th Day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and Eleven. William CAMPBELL, Robert SMITH & John DICKSON, Judges and Jared KIRTLAND & John PHILLIPS, Clerks of this election were severally sworn as the Law directs previous to their entering on the duties of their respective offices. Certified by Robt. SMITH, Judge, Jared KIRTLAND, clk." Each list is numbered, showing the total number of electors. All of the lists have been rearranged in alphabetical order for this article.

The various lists were taken on the following dates:

AUSTIN(TOWN) - 8 Oct 1811 BOARDMAN - 8 Oct 1811 CANFIELD - 5 Jan 1807 COITSVILLE - 13 Oct 1807 COITSVILLE - 8 Oct 1811

MICHAEL H. CHANDLER AND THE PEARL OF GREAT PRICE: UPDATE

Thomas Milton Tinney, C.G.R.S.*

In 1975 and 1976, I copyrighted a 3 part article: Michael H. Chandler and the Pearl of Great Price.[1] (This material was used by Dr.H.Donl Peterson and others to point researchers to the location of Michael H. Chandler.)[2] He had sold Egyptian Mummies and Manuscripts to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormons), which later were partially published as: The Pearl of Great Price. [3] Extensive attempts are being made to trace all of Chandler's descending lineages, to contact living family heirs for further insights, through handed down family traditions or surviving Egyptian artifacts. Research into the background, ancestry and descendants of Michael H. Chandler and family is presently in progress by this writer and by others associated with the LDS Church.

Current research validates Michael H. Chandler was born in Ireland circa 1797 [4] or 1798 [5] and apparently married there to Frances F. Ludlow. [6] The family was located in County Longford, Ireland, in 1822 or 1823. [7] Frances F. Ludlow was born in Ireland circa 1798 to 1800, [8], with their children Thomas, Ann, William H. and George W. Chandler, born in Ireland circa 1820,1822,1825 and 1827, respectively.

Their year of arrival in the United States varies by source. Records of Ann Chandler, a daughter, state: she came to America aged 5, or c.1828. [9] Catharine H. Chandler, the fifth child in the family, is shown born in Ohio in 1829, [10] with the later children of Michael H. Chandler noted born either in Ohio or Pennsylvania. However, later census records state year of entry to be either 1831 [11] or 1832, [12] the time frame of potential transfer of Egyptian Mummies and artifacts from Trieste to the United States via New York, with an "Italian man in Philadelphia...commissioned to serve as an agent for the Lebolo family to sell the mummies in the United States." [13] There is no current verification of Oliver Cowdery's statement that Michael H. Chandler of Philadelphia is a nephew of Antonio Lebolo, [14] who died 19 Feb 1830 (Castellamonte), though verification of eleven mummies in possession of the Lebolo family has been made. [15] Research into the identity of Grace Chandler, mentioned as a "niece" to John Augustus Chandler, Michael's son, tentatively is now identified as an apparent "grand" niece. Potentially, family usage of the word niece for grand niece would indicate Michael H. Chandler was a "grand" nephew or nephew in law to Antonio Lebolo. No verification has been made of the possibility that the Ludlow surname, as Lu-d-low, is an English or Irish variant of Le-bo-lo.

Family physical characteristics that have been identified in the children of Michael H. Chandler and his wife Frances F. Ludlow, show at present that at least one member of the Chandler family had a dark complexion. [16] Known height of two of the children varies from 5'8" to 5'11" tall, blue eyes and brown hair, turning to gray with aging.

Chronology of Michael H. Chandler in America:

1. Catharine H. Chandler b 1829 or 12 Dec 1830 in Ohio.[17]
2. Francis F. (Fanny) Chandler b 1831 in Penna. [18]
3. John Augustus Chandler b Feb 1833 or 1834 in Penna. [19] On 21 May 1833 Michael H. Chandler displayed Egyptian mummies in the Philadelphia Arcade. [20] The Chandler exhibit appears documented in at least 61 Philadelphia newspaper advertisements. [21] Additionally, advertisement also appears in The Harford Republican of Belle Air, Harford Co., MD, on 23 May 1833, stating: "Nine Mummies, recently found in the vicinity of Thebes, are now exhibiting at the Masonic Hall, Philadelphia." [22] Dr.Samuel G. Morton mentions "Among the embalmed heads of several other mummies was one of an Egyptian girl of 16 "brought from the catacombs near Thebes by the late Antonio Lebalo...of whose heirs I purchased it, together with the entire body; the latter I dissected before the Academy of Natural Sciences on 10th & 17th of December 1833 in the presence of 80 members and others." [23] One of Chandler's placards has reference to Samuel G. Morgan, M.D., perhaps a type error for Morton. [24]
4. Eliza Jane Chandler b 1834 in Penna. [25,26] "On 3 July (1835) Michael H. Chandler came to Kirtland to exhibit some Egyptian mummies. There were four human figures, together with some 2 or more rolls of papyrus covered with heiroglyphic figures and devices." [27]

In Kirtland, Ohio, on 6 July 1835, Michael H. Chandler stated: "this is to make known to all whom may be desirous, concerning the knowledge of Joseph Smith Jr. in deciphering the ancient Egyptian hieroglyphic characters in my possession, which I have, in many eminent cities, shown to the most learned: And from the information that I could learn or meet with, I find that of Joseph Smith Jr. to correspond in the most minute matters." [28] Joseph Smith Jr. purchased four mummies for $600 each [29], by $800 from Joseph Coe, $800 from Simeon Andrews, and $800 from members donations.[30] These were placed in the care of Dr. Williams [Dr. Frederick C. Williams] and were taken by his son Ezra to exhibit in the surrounding communities." [31] Articles concerning the LDS Church involvement with Chandler and the mummies appear in the Cleveland Whig 31 July 1835 , the New York Sunday Morning News on 16 Aug 1835, the Painesville Telegraph quoting the New York Evening Star on 4 Sep 1835, and an 1835 letter by Oliver Cowdery, second Elder and Assistant President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, mailed to William Frye, Esq., of Gilead, Calhoun Co., ILL, written 22 Dec and printed 31 Dec 1835 in The Latter-day Saints' Messenger & Advocate, a Church-owned newspaper at Kirtland, Ohio. [32]

Then Frances Chandler, wife of Michael Chandler of Parkman, Geauga Co., OH, for consideration of $600 given to George & Francis Parkman (by attorney Edward Blake), Boston, Suffolk Co., Mass. by letter of attorney to Edward Blake dated 16 June 1836, recorded in Geauga Co. Records Book V p112-114, purchased 10 Aug, a tract or lot of land situate in Parkman or Township, amounting to 83.46 acres of land. [33] Francis Chandler appears twice in 1837 Parkman land tax and Michael Chandelier (sic) appears in 1837 Parkman chattle tax lists.[34]

5. Adolphus N. Chandler, b 8 Jan 1838, Philadelphia PA [35], or Ohio. [36] Civil War records state Adolphus N. Chandler, also known as A.W. and A.W.S. Chancellor (sic). Winthrop Sargent and William Craig, two Philadelphia business partners, filed a lawsuit 13 Nov 1838 to recover $6000 from Michael Chandler at Geauga County Probate Court. [37]

6. Henry Arthur Chandler, b1838 [38], or 1839 [39] in Ohio.- Court of Common Pleas records in Geauga Co. Oh, Sargent and Craig versus Michael H. Chandler, held April and June 1839, "to be continued." [40] Frances Chandler and Michael A. (sic) Chandler, husband of said Frances of Parkman, Geauga Co OH, for the consideration of $1410 received by Evander Tracy, sell the whole 83.46 acres in Parkman. [41] In this transaction, Frances signed with "her mark", an X. Michael signed his name on 23 Aug 1839. In Nov 1839, case of Sargent & Craig versus Chandler "to be continued." [42]

7. Mary M. Chandler b 16 Apr 1840 in Ohio [43]. In April 1840, the aforementioned case of Sargent & Craig versus Chandler, as well as Oct 1840 session of the same court. [44] Michael Chandler appears in the 1840 census of Parkman Twp., Geauga Co. with 2 males & 1 female under age 5; 1 male & 1 female aged 5-10; 2 females 10-15; 2 males & 1 female 15-20; 1 male 20-30; 1 male & 1 female 40-50, a total of 15, engaged in agriculture. Michael Chandler appears in the 1840 personal property tax list for Parkman Township. [46]. In 1841 he appears in Parkman personal property tax list with 2 horses valued at $80 and 4 cattle valued at $32. [47]. In this same year, judgment was made in Geauga Co. Common Pleas Court in favor of the plaintiffs Sargent & Craig for $850 and $50.67 court costs. Michael H. Chandler gave notice of his intention to appeal to the Supreme Court on 27 Apr 1841. [48]

8. Alvira L. (varies: Elevia, Elvira, Eleva) Chandler, b 1842 in Ohio. [49] "The Mormons—A Leaf from Joe Smith", an article in the New York Weekly Herald, is quoted in the 2 May 1842 edition of the Times and Seasons, with mention made of Mr. Chandler. [50]

No Chandler family appears in the 1842 personal property tax of Parkman Township, Geauga Co., OH. [51] Some interesting variations now occur in the records. In the 1843 personal property tax list for Parkman, the name of Thomas Chandler, apparent son of Michael H., appears with 2 cattle valued at $16. [52] The same records for year 1844 show Thomas Chandler with 1 horse & 2 cattle [53] Joseph Coe wrote a letter 1 Jan 1844 to Joseph Smith Jr. stating that Mr. Chandler had been in court.[54] On 25 June 1844, Michael H. Chandler was naturalized as an American citizen in Geauga Co. Court of Common Pleas.[55] On 22 Oct 1844, Michael was involved in another lawsuit by Sargent & Craig in their attempt to recover plaintiffs' damages & costs plus defendants' costs.[56] In the 1845 Parkman personal property tax list, William Chandler had 1 horse & 2 cattle; Thomas Chandler has 2 cattle; Adam Steel (son-in-law of Michael Chandler) 2 cattle.[57] The combined total of 1 horse & 6 cattle appears in the 1846 Assessors Returns for Parkman Township under the name of Richard (sic) Chandler, 1 horse & 6 cattle.[58] Richard (sic) Chandler is also mentioned in the list for 1846.[59]. Then, in 1847, Michael Chandler again appears in Parkman Township personal property lists.[60] He is listed with 1 horse, 6 cattle, 30 sheep, 5 hogs and one carriage. Michael H. Chandler is listed again in 1848, and as Michael Chandler in 1849.[61, 62] On 3 Apr 1849 David Tod and Benjamin F. Hoffman were in a lawsuit versus Michael H. Chandler in Geauga Co. Common Pleas Court. Chandler was in possession of, or had claimed title to premises in a Declaration of Ejectment, containing 100.53 acres of land on 3 Jan 1846 with damages of $600.[63] Michael Chandler appears in the 1850 tax of Parkman Twp.,[64] and is also listed in the 1850 census on page 309 in Parkman Township.[65] The valuation of real estate is $1800. The first publication of The Pearl of Great Price, 1851.[66]

Lawsuits now begin to abound. The Reverse Index No.2 for Geauga Co. Common Pleas Court shows Michael Chandler vs Winthrop Sargeant 10 Oct 1853, EE 409 MO to recover Judgt Ex ordered, Execution Docket K p196. Michael H. Chandler etal vs John D. Bridges is recorded on 13 Oct 1856. Final Record GG 167 states Civil Action with Judgt for Plff, 218-46 Vol L p20 of Execution Docket. William H. Chandler etal is also listed in the index as part of the Civil Action with John D. Bridges.[67] Additionally, on 10 Oct 1853, Francis Chandler, Pltf, vs Henry Norton,Def., is recorded in Journal Q p167, reference "Money" in which judgment is given for Deft, in Execution Docket K p187.[68] A William H. Chandler shows up in the Mortgage Index for Geauga Co. on 23 Feb 1857 to Joseph Y. Tisdel for 95.47 acres, $2000-released.[69] A William H. Chandler is mentioned as Grantor in Geauga Co. Deeds to Oliver Fowler for 95.47 acres in Middlefield, dated 2 Dec 1857,[70] on land received as grantee from Joseph Y. Tisdel.[71]

Michael H. Chandler and wife Francis, with children Arthur H., Mary and Elvira, appear in the 1860 census in Parkman, Geauga County, Ohio.[72] David Tod and Maria S. Tod, his wife, sell, for $1048.25, a tract in Parkman, part of Lots 3,4,& 5 in Section 15 in said township, R6T6, containing 100.53 acres on 26 Feb 1864.[73] Michael H. Chandler made his will and signed it on the same day he died, 21 Oct 1866. In his will, he gave his son Thomas $10; son William H., $10; son George W. $50, and $50 each to children Laurence, Emmogene and John; son John A. $300 plus payment in full of two promissory notes; son Adolphus N. $200; son Arthur Henry $250; daughter Frances F. Lightfoot, wife of Washington Lightfoot, $250; daughter Ann Boyce, wife of John Boyce, $250, with provisions made to 4 children by her first marriage to Adam Steel; daughter Catharine H. Clover $250; daughter Mary M. Griffith, wife of William Wallace Griffith, $250; daughter Elevia L. Chandler $250 and "as good a setting out whenever she shall marry or choose to keep house by herself as will average with the other sisters"; all else to beloved wife Frances with adjustments if she remarries.[74] The will was proved 17 Nov 1866.[75] Subscribing witnesses were Joseph H. Wolcott and Sherburn H. Loveland. Frances Chandler appears in Geauga Democrat on 5 Dec 1866 as the appointed executrix of Michael H. Chandler's estate, late of Parkman, Geauga County.[76] Proof of appointment appears in Appointments Bonds and Letters for Probate Court on 5 Jan 1867.[77] In the 1870 census of Parkman, on 23 June 1870, Frances Chandler and family appear twice, once with real estate valued at $5000 and personal estate at $1800; and in the other entry dated 25 Mar 1870, with real estate valued at $4000 and personal estate at $700.[78] Mention is made of a farm laborer born in Ireland, John Ludlow, white male aged 52 years. John Ludlow, aged 77, is buried in the same West Farmington Cemetery as the family of Michael H. Chandler, having died 4/18/1894.[79] In the 1880 census of Whitley Co. IN is John Ludlow listed as the widowed "Bro in law" to John Boyce, the second husband of Frances F. Ludlow, daughter of Michael H. Chandler. John Boyce stated he came to America in 1843.[80]

The M.H.Chandler property is listed in 1874, on the eastern border of Parkman Twp. in the ATLAS OF LAKE AND GEAUGA COUNTIES, OHIO, by D.J.LAke, C.E.[81] This property also appears in the 1880 Tax Map for Parkman Tp., Geauga Co.[82] The 1880 census of Parkman, on 9 June 1880, listed Fanny F.Chandler, aged 82, with daughter Elevia, aged 38, living at home. Places of birth of Fanny's parents [maiden name LUDLOW) are given as "Ireland."[83] This seriously questions an immediate "nephew-in-law" relationship through the Ludlow family to the Lebolo family. A cousin relationship appears to be the only remaining realistic possibility from currently evaluated records. In 1880, The Historical Society of Geauga County erroneously published in the PIONEER AND GENERAL HISTORY OF GEAUGA COUNTY, WITH SKETCHES OF SOME OF THE PIONEERS AND PROMINENT MEN, that "the farm north of Amer Moore, situated on the eastern boundary of the township, was first settled about 1820 by Mr.Chandler, and owned by him till his death."[84] Mention of some of the children of Michael H.Chandler appeared in the 1882 edition of the HISTORY OF TRUMBULL & MAHONING COUNTIES, Vol.II.[85] The administration docket, v.2, of Geauga Co. Probate Court, 1883-1897, shows entries in the Journal Record, v.D, p140; v.K p17,28,29,39,43,47,147,200,205,221,222,229,276,-353,370; v.M p22 & 77, for the estate of Frances F. Chandler and Michael Chandler, "see Docket Sine 307 page, 1866..."[86] West Farmington Hillside Cemetery, Farmington Tp., Trumbull Co., has an impressively tall (about 9 feet) family headstone, with the following inscriptions:[87,88]

Chandler, by his third marriage, Anan Gordon, is mentioned in the HENRY R. BALDWIN GENEALOGICAL RECORDS, as son of Robert and grandson of Col.Thomas Gordon, Rev.Pensioner, who was born in Scotland.[181] No pension record for a Col.Thomas Gordon was discovered in the pension record indexes to the National Archives. Nevertheless, this same tradition is carried forth in the HISTORY OF TRUMBULL & MAHONING COUNTIES OHIO, Vol.II, which states: "Anan Gordon was born 12 Feb 1823 in Warren, OH. His father, Robert Gordon, was born in Washington Co PA, 8 June 1796. His grandfather, Col.Thomas Gordon, came from Scotland in an early day, and settled in Washington Co, PA. An attempt was made to bribe him to go into Burgoyne's Army in the Revolution, but Mr. Gordon remained steadfast in his loyalty to the land of his adoption, and spurned the insult with indignation. In 1799 he came to Ohio and located in Poland Township...then moved to Ashtabula County...where he died in 1840. Mr.Robert Gordon came to Warren about 1817 from Ashtabula County. He was a brickmaker. There were 12 children in his family, 6 boys and 6 girls, all of whom lived to maturity.[182] In contradicting DAR records, Robert Gordon, a mason[183] of Warren, Trumbull Co OH, is shown as the son of private Thomas Gordon, 6th battalion, 7th regiment, Westmoreland Co PA militia. This Thomas Gordon was born in Scotland and died in Ashtabula Co OH.[184] The 1880 census of Bristol Village, Trumbull Co, for the family of A.Q.Gordon, with wife Frances F. Gordon, gives no indication of any issue by this second marriage.[185]

Children of WASHINGTON & FRANCES F. (CHANDLER) LIGHTFOOT: (first husband)

30 i. CHARLES W. LIGHTFOOT b 1857 Indiana.[186] In May 1874, Charles Lightfoot is a minor heir of Washington Lightfoot dec'd. He has real

9 ADOLPHUS N. CHANDLER was born 8 Jan 1838 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia Co., PA,[189] the son of Michael H. & Frances F.(Ludlow) Chandler. He died 10 Nov 1911 aged 73y 10m 2d at Fort Bennett, Stanley Co., SD, of acute cardiac dilatition. Burial was made at West Farmington, OH[190]. He was married 5 Feb 1867 to Eliza N. Davidson at Warren, Trumbull Co OH by R.M.Warren of the M.E.Church; neither married before. Eliza was born 8 May 1841 at Farmington, OH and died 4 Jan 1923, and is buried with her husband in Hillside Cemetery, West Farmington, OH, Sec.#4, Lot #31.- This lot was purchased by Eliza Chandler 26 Feb 1912; there is a monument.[191] Adolphus N. Chandler was in the Civil War from Ohio, in Company D(C) Ohio Infantry, beginning enrollment 12 Aug 1862. The enlistment record dated 14 Aug 1862, Shalersville OH, he is described as aged 24, height 5' 11", complexion light, eyes blue, hair brown, occupation farmer. On 30 Aug 1862, he is at Massillon OH. He was present at the siege of Knoxville, TN, Resaca GA, Nashville TN and Old Town Creek NC. He was in the hospital at Marietta GA on 15 Aug 1864 and was absent, sick in hospital at Nashville in Nov 1864. In the march from KY to Knoxville, on or about 4 Sep 1863, Adolphus contracted a bad cold that caused chronic bronchitis, catarrh and resulting disease of the throat and lungs, progressive chronic diarrhea, possible heart disease arising from arterio sclerosis of the arteries, chronic rheumatism, disease of the rectum and nearly total deafness of the left ear. He was mustered out with his Company, 17 June 1865 at Greensboro NC.[192] On 21 Oct 1866, Michael H. Chandler gave his son Adolphus the sum of $200 in addition the amount he has already received.[193] Adolphus A. Chandler has personal estate worth $1200 in 1870.[194] In 1880, he continued to reside in West Farmington village, Trumbull Co OH.[195] His wife Eliza notes parents born Pennsylvania. There are no children. Civil War documents define residence of Adolphus on 18 Sep 1884 as Canning, Hughes Co, Dakota Territory; 4 Nov 1891 at DeGrey, Hughes Co SD through 6 Sep 1893. He is listed as a gardener in 1900, DeGrey Dist., Hughes Co SD.[196] He is a resident of the city of Pierce, Hughes Co, on 25 Aug 1909, and listed in the 3rd & 4th Ward of Pierce, a truck farmer, in 1910, with location of parentage confused by census taker with previously enumerated family.[197] Eliza, resident of Fort Bennett, Stanley Co SD, widow of Adolphus, returned to Trumbull Co OH by 12 Dec 1911.[198] Eliza Davidson, aged 9, appeared in the 1850 census of Farmington, Trumbull Co OH, as born in Trumbull County.[199] She resided in the family of William Davidson, aged 42, farmer, real estate $2000, born PA, as was Margaret Davidson, aged 35. Jane 15, Mary 13, Samuel 11, Margaret E. 7, James 5 and Nancy M. Davidson, 2, all born Trumbull Co OH, also reside in the family. In West Farmington Cemetery, Farmington Tp, Trumbull Co OH, is buried William A. Davidson, died 11 Feb 1878 ae 69y 7m 13d; Margaret, his wife, died 24 Sep 1863 ae 52y; Matilda b 4 Mar 1847 d 2 Mar 1909; William A. b 1849 d 1917; and Hannah I. Davidson, b 1853 d 1919.[200]

Children of ADOLPHUS N. & ELIZA N. (DAVIDSON) CHANDLER:

11 MARY M. CHANDLER born 16 Apr 1840 in Ohio, the daughter of Michael H. & Frances F. (Ludlow) Chandler.[201] died 6 Jan 1915, and is buried with her husband William Wallace Griffith, in West Farmington Cemetery, Trumbull Co OH.[202] Mary M. Chandler (Chamber) of Farmington was married 28 Nov 1860 in Trumbull Co OH to Wallace (Wallas) W. Griffith by D.J.White, M.G.[203] On 21 Oct 1866, Michael H. Chandler gave his daughter Mary M. Griffith, wife of William Wallace Griffith, the sum of $250 in addition to what she has already received.[204] Wm.M.Griffith, aged 31, farmer, real estate $6000, is residing with Mary M. in 1870 in Farmington Twp., Trumbull Co OH. He was born in Ohio[205], 12 Jly 1837[206] or 1836. His father, William S. Griffith, came to Farmington from McHenry (sic: Montgomery?) Co NY about 1820, and then married Almira Lee. William & Almira had James Addison, Chauncy, Milo W., William W., Albert and a male child (died in infancy) Griffith. William S. Griffith died in 1864 aged 64y. He taught the first school in East Farmington in the old log school-house.[207] Almira Griffith, aged 79, the widow of William S., with New York ancestry, is living with Wm.W. & Mary M.Griffith in 1880, in Farmington, Trumbull Co OH.[208] Almira (Lee) Griffith is listed as one of the 11 children of Abijah Lee who moved to Farmington from McHenry (sic: Montgomery?) Co NY in 1818, coming the whole distance of 500 miles in a sleigh, bringing his mother, then 83 years old, his wife, and 11 children. The names of his children were: Roswell, Lydia, Isaac, Almira, Harriet, Polly, Simeon, Hannah, Betsey, Seth and Electa. By 1882, Roswell, Isaac, Hannah & Harriet were dead, with Simeon living in Michigan; Lydia in Ashtabula Co; the remainder in Farmington.[209] There is an error in this biography as New York does not have a McHenry County. Abijah Lee, unlike most of the early settlers of Farmington, came from New York. His oldest son was Roswell, the father of Angeline Warwood, one of Warren's most respected citizens. He was a very generous man and one time when a neighbor, Mrs.McKay, lost her only cow, he gave her one of his own. Roswell married Sally Smith of Oppenheim. His brother Isaac was engaged to Sally's sister, Mary, and when Roswell went east for Sally, Isaac begged Mary to return with them. In those days as in this, a good many of the barbaric thoughts of marriage were still held by people, and most brides insisted that the bridegroom should at least come to fetch them, if they did not come to catch them. So, Mary hesitated a long time before she would consent to go to Isaac. However, the distance was so long that she concluded to waive ceremony. The lover met the party at Rock Creek, where they had come in a sleigh, and the four were carried to Farmington by oxen and a sledge.- They were married the next day.[210] Abijah Lee came to Ohio with Ira Hyde and Joel Hyde, from Oppenheim, Fulton Co., NY.[211] Almira Lee married William Griffith and they moved into a log house not far from the Brockets. She was a cheery, bright woman. Her oldest son, when a young man, was killed on his way home from Pittsburgh with a load of salt. At this hospitable home were held applebees, quilting bees, social meetings of old and young people, as well as prayer meetings.[212] W.W.Griffith, another son, appears in Lot #4, West Farmington Village, in the ATLAS AND DIRECTORY OF TRUMBULL CO.OHIO for the year 1899.[213] In 1898 Mary M. Griffith initiated litigation against the Chandler family in Geauga County; Mary M. Griffith vs Thomas Chandler, etal.[214]. In 1900, Mary M.Griffith's husband, William W., was Post Master of West Farmington, OH, and Mrs.Griffith states she has had no children.[215] William M., $960, of West Farmington appears in the OFFICIAL REGISTER, The Postal Service for 1909.[216] In the 1910 census, Mary M. states she has been married 49 years and had one child, a contradiction of the 1900 census.[217] William Wallace Griffith died 30 Sep 1913.[218]

Children of WILLIAM WALLACE & MARY M. (CHANDLER) GRIFFITH:

31 i. possible child of unknown sex, deceased by 1900.[219,220]

12 ALVIRA L. CHANDLER b Jly 1842 or 1843 in Ohio, the daughter of Michael H. & Frances F. (Ludlow) Chandler.-[221,222] Miss Levia Chandler married 8 Feb 1882 Frank W. Tucker in Geauga Co OH by W.H.Wilson, M.G. Application for license was made by Ira N.Tucker.[223] A Frank Tucker appears in the 1880 census of Parkman, Geauga Co OH as a farm laborer in the Reeves household.[224] Alvira's father Michael on 21 Oct 1866, did "give and bequeath to my daughter Elevia L. Chandler the sum of $250 and also as good a setting out whenever she shall marry or choose to keep house by herself as will average with the other sisters."[225] She appears in the 1870 census with her widowed mother[226], and in 1880, is listed with Frances F. Chandler as Elevia Chandler, aged 38, daughter, single, at home, born Ohio, parents born Ireland.[227] In 1900, Elevia, wife of Frank W. Tucker, married 17 years, mentions she has had no children. She states both her parents were born in Ireland. Frank W. Tucker, born March 1859 in Ohio, states his parents were both born in England. He was an oil driller.[228] They were living in North Baltimore, Henry Tp, Wood Co OH. (Note: LDS sealed 16 Oct 1980SL[229])

Children of FRANK W. & ELEVIA L. (CHANDLER) TUCKER:

LEVI HUKIL SHERMAN & THE 1849 GOLD RUSH

James H. Johnson*

Letters, written by Levi Hukil Sherman during the 1849 Gold Rush, were preserved and typed copies were prepared in 1932 by C.E. Sherman, Professor of Civil Engineering at Ohio State University. "Uncle Chris" Sherman provided copies to his nieces and nephews on Christmas, 1932. The original letters are now in the possession of Mrs. Carl (Betty) McKown, 2060 Golden Circle Drive, Escondido CA 92025, who gave the submitter permission to publish them. For purposes of brevity, selected abstracts from these letters are herewith presented, and the complete set of letters is on file at OGS Headquarters in Mansfield.

AMOS SHERMAN

Amos, son of Abel & Lucy (Foote) Sherman, was born in Newtown CT. He moved with his parents to Waterford Tp., Washington Co, OH in 1789. He shot and killed the Indian Chief Silver Heels who had shot and killed his father (Abel) on 14 Aug 1794. He married Sarah Whitham, b 1 May 1784, daughter of William & Augusta (Hukill) Whitham of West Alexander PA in 1808 and apparently took up residence at or near the latter town. He served one term as drummer in the War of 1812 (6 Sep to 7 Oct 1812). He contracted "Black Tongue" (diptheria) upon his discharge at Fort Meigs, near Toledo, Wood Co.,OH, and died before reaching home. His wife, leaving their twin sons, Levi H. & William W. and daughter Cynthia with their Witham grandparents at West Alexander, proceeded to meet her husband at Fort Meigs. As the husband died at Fort Meigs, his widow apparently returned to West Alexander. She is mentioned in the will of her father, William Witham, dated 24 Apr 1840.

The 1810 census of Donegal Tp., Washington Co PA shows "Amos Shareman" with one male 45+, 1 female 26-45, 2 males under 10. This is apparently the Amos Sherman family living near West Alexander. The death date of Sarah Sherman is unknown.

WILLIAM WHITHAM

William, son of William & Mary Whitham of Cecil Co., MD, b 1755, married Augustua Hukill, b 1759, on 17 Jly 1779. She died 6 May 1822 and is buried along the highway between Wheeling and West Alexander, one mile east of the state line. On 26 Apr 1825 William Whitham married Margaret Meek, the widow of William Meek, both about 70 years of age, and lived at West Alexander until 1839 when they went to live with George Meek near Glencoe, Belmont Co OH, where he died about 1840.

LEVI HUKIL SHERMAN

Levi H. Sherman, son of Amos & Sarah (Whitham) Sherman, was born 22 Apr 1809 near West Alexander, PA. His twin brother was named William W. The twins were named after their mother's parents, Whitham and Hukill. When his mother went to meet her husband upon his discharge from the Federal Army at Fort Meigs in October 1812, she left her children with her parents, the Whithams, near West Alexander. She apparently returned to that place after the death of her husband.

Levi's grandmother died 6 May 1822, when Levi was 13 years old. His grandfather, William Witham, married his second wife, Margaret Meek, on 26 Apr 1825. It is assumed that twins Levi & William left about 1830 for Columbus, Ohio, and engaged in the manufacture of combs.

Levi married Lyda Gay Morrill (b 1 Mar 1819) at Columbus, OH on 9 Dec 1838, and they had 3 children: Sylvester Morrill, b 23 Dec 1842, Cynthia Ann, b 22 Feb 1845, and Levi William b 13 Nov 1847.

Levi left Columbus in April 1849 for California by wagon train and arrived there in August. He wrote several letters to his wife, describing his trip across the plains, encounter with Indians, and the high prices of food & lodging in California. He started to mine gold along the north fork of Mokelumne Creek in Calevaras County about 42 miles east of Stockton, but in Nov 1849 he was kicked in the right knee by a mule and suffered from inflamation and gangrene for about four months before succumbing on 13 Mar 1850. He apparently was buried near where he died. His widow married George Cookman on 30 Dec 1852 and had two children: Charles Edward, b 3 Jan 1854, and Martha Ellen (Nell) b 19 Nov 1856. Charles went to New York City and became a well-known and successful artist. He never married. Martha Ellen married James Obetz and had two children, Walter & Bessie. Mrs. Cookman died 18 Sep 1910, and George Cookman died 16 Apr 1859. Both buried in Greenlawn Cemetery at Columbus,OH.

THE LETTERS

19 Oct 1839, West Alexander PA, from William & Margaret Whitham to William & Levi Sherman, Columbus Ohio.

"Dear Grandchildren: ...we have heard nothing from you until a few days ago we received a letter from Mr.Osbourn and Cynthia Ann informing us that Levi was married. ...We are making arrangements to move to the state of Ohio and live with Henry or George Meek..."

10 Apr 1849, St.Louis, MO, from L.H.Sherman to wife Lydia (Morrill) Sherman.

"We arrived here in good health. We are on board the steamboat 'John Hancock' on which there are 180 cabin passengers and 135 deck passengers. There is over 100 large steam boats laying at the wharf. On the second day, we got very wet which gave me some cold. Mr. Gale promised to send me a knife which he did not do. I telegraphed him from Cincinnati but he refused me an answer. McHiffner offered to get them for me if Gale would stand good for the amount but no, he told James Ware that he had no dispatch to send and here I am without money, coat, knife, or even enough boots. If it was possible to get 15 or 20 dollars it would add much to my comfort. Be sure to direct your letter to St.Josephs Missouri."

10 Apr 1849, St.Louis, MO from L.H.Sherman to brothers & sisters W.W.Sherman & wife and Cynthia (Sherman) Osborn & husband at Girard Pa.

"I had an opportunity filling a vacancy in John Walton's Company. We started from Columbus on the 2nd and arrived here on the 9th. We shall leave here this evening for Independence and from there to St.Josephs, the point of starting by land. I have seen Mr.Cutchaw who sends his respects. Clark I have not seen yet. Our company are all well and in good spirits. There is some considerable cholera in St.Louis but is confined entirely to those who expose themselves either by dissipation or unclenly habits."

20 Apr 1849, St.Josephs MO from L.H.Sherman to his wife.

"We landed here on the 16th and find the town crowded with Californians so much so that it is almost impossible for a man to procure lodgings at any price. Our company is camped about 1/2 mile from the village...I humbly trust to better my condition (in California), the latest information yesterday direct from the diggins is encouraging. He states they were averaging one hundred dollars per day. Mr.McColm was drawn overboard between Cincinnati & St.Louis, but was saved. John Walton received a kick from a mule when we landed here which I feared would prove fatal but he is now able to attend to business again. Please see Mr.Gale or William Harrison & say that George Chadwick requests him to write him at San Francisco. Please give my love to your mother for she has been a mother to me as well. My respects to Mr.Bedell & lady as well as to Mr.Golver and family, Orlin & Rebecca, Marthia and Margaret. My love to yourself and the children; tell Sylvester to be a good boy and he shall be well rewarded when I return. As well as Cynthia Ann and Oliver. Direct your letters to San Francisco. Write to William and Cynthia and tell them to write to me. I've just heard Mr.Hunter & company have just landed & all well."

28 Apr 1849, Indian Territory, from L.H.Sherman to his wife.

"I have not heard from you and I fear I shall not as we have made a start from our encampment for the diggins. We are now encamped 8 or 10 miles out upon the paries or rather baron hills where you may see as far as the eye can reach without a tree. I must say it is certainly the most beautiful scene I have ever saw in my life."

LEVI HUKIL SHERMAN & THE 1849 GOLD RUSH

14 May 1849, Fort Carney (Kearney), L.H.Sherman to wife

"We are now encamped on the bank of the Platt River about one mile from the Fort. On the 12th the boys supposing they saw a herd of buffalo started post haste after them, but to their surprise they found them to be a party of Indians numbering some 35 with a body on foot of about 115. Those on foot advanced within about 600 yards when they formed in a circle. Apparently held a council while our boys hurried our teams into the form called a carell unhitched and fastened the mules to the waggons and formed a line of Battle hoisted our flag. When our Captain went out to meet them, find they were either affraid or had no disposition to fight. They shoed signs of friendship when they were permitted to come up took a shake hands all round, the boys traded some with them when they were informed they must leave they mounted their poneys and proceded across the plain. Our train consists of 16 waggons and 54 men. We are about 300 miles west of St.Joseph and further to say that the fort here has formerly been called Fort Childs. There has been about 1000 wagons passed here before us. We came up to this place in a train of waggons about 3 miles long. I will write from Fort Larama 333 miles from here. Accept a husbands love and my respects to your mother Rebecca & O.Bedell & L as well as other inquirin friends."

21 Aug 1849, Sacramento City, L.H.Sherman to his wife

"I have not received any letters from you since the one by hand from Mr.Walton on the Ohio river. We arrived here on the 20th. I have enjoyed good health with the exception of about 10 days I was sick with the mountain fever. I expect to go from here to Macalmy river to operate in the mines where I trust I shall make from 50 to 60 dollars per day."

16 Oct 1849, San francisco UP California, L.H.Sherman to his wife at Columbus, Franklin Co OH.

"I have the unspeakable pleasure of receiving the first intelligence from you since I have been in the country. I am in tolerable health except for a little seasickness crossing the Bays on my way here from the mines, a distance of over 200 miles. I am boarding on the ship 'Ginett' at two dollars per day and find my own bed at that. The principle hotels charge 21 dollars per week for board and the same for lodging making 42 dollars per week. Nothing could afford me more happiness than to know I could return this fall or winter, and if possible I shall do so for I do not like the country. As for obtaining a fortune by mining in so short time as represented by many I can assure you is not the case. Charles DeWitt and myself are mining together and likely shall untill we obtain enough to come home. The report respecting Mr.Rugg is entirely unfounded. The company all arrived in California safe and in good health."

15 Apr 1850, North Fork Calevarass Cala, L.H.Sherman to wife

"I have been waiting for letters from you since the 1st of Oct when I received two and on the 15th of this month, 3 others and four papers. I cannot express the pleasure in knowing that you and my children had escaped the cholera.- The course you pursued in going to your mother's meets my approbation and think you acted wisely in so doing. The circumstances will not admit my writing a long letter as I have had the misfortune to be kicked by a mule on my right knee. Inflamation followed and I have been confined to my bed 2 months but hope to get up again in 8 or 10 days. You inquire when I expect to return. In relation to this I am in some doubt. I do not feel that it would be doing myself or you justice to return until I have in some degree paid myself for my risk and expense. I received a letter from brother William. He was in N York and is on his way here; he will arrive in Aprile. (note at bottom from E.S.Pearsall, who wrote the letter for L.H.Sherman)"

13 Mar 1850, Mechallony Creek [probably Makelumne in Calaceras County], from Charles DeWitt to Mrs. Lydia Sherman

"It appears to have fallen on my lot to announce to you the death of your husband Levi Sherman he died this morning Wednesday the 13 at 4 o'clock after a longue and painful illness. He was taken sick sometime in November and confined close to his bed up to the time of his death. He layed at the store of Mrts. Murry and Howe where he had all the attention that was possible paid to him. Doctors Tiggren & Doc Fields were I believe his medical counsil. It is evidently clear that the comsumtion was the complaint. Mr.- Sherman has left nothing that can render you any assistence it has taken all he had to setle his bill & I supose that will not be suficent I called to see him very often he spo ke of you and his little children and expresed a greate desire to get home and see you and his little children he received a letter from you dated Dec 24th the other day I read it to him. He did not say that he had anything in particular to send to you but apeared think he would be able soon to start home. Mrs. Sherman I can assure you that your husband was well taken care of and everyting that could be obtained that was nesary for him way got. I believe that I have nothing more to write to you at present. Yours, Charles DeWitt. Levi got a leter from his brother from New York a few days before he sailed his brother expected to arive in Aprile he wished Levi to be at San francisco. I will write this morning to his brother at San francisco. Mrs. Sherman as you live close to my brother I wish you would let him now that I am well."

25 May 1850, from Hall of the Sons of Temperance, Good Samaritan Division No.23, Columbus, to Mrs. Lydia Sherman:

"Resolutions of respect on the death of your husband. James Aston, R.S."

25 Dec 1932, Columbus, OH from C.E.Sherman, C.E. ("Uncle Chris") to nieces and nephews.

"Your grandfather ("Pa" as you all lovingly called him) some years before his death gave me a package of letters written by his father while going to California in the great "gold rush" of 1849. I have made copies of them for you. John Allen Sherman examined the originals when he was here on his way back from England last September and wanted copies, so I have made copies for you all.

"The times were hard in 1849 (date of the first letter) partly due to abolition of the U.S.Bank and the wide-spread failures among state banks and other "wildcat" financial institutions. It was not easy to make a living in 1849, either. Life was strenuous then as in that year there wre more than 6000 deaths from cholera in Cincinnati and about the same number in St.Louis, both being cities of less than 100,000.

"There were no anaesthetics in 1849, so that surgery was painful. Also accidents were often fatal for lack of sterlizing medicines. You will note from the St.Joseph letter that the leader of the company, Mr. Walton, was almost killed by mule-kick. Your great-grandfather was later kicked on the knee and died from the effects (knee fractured and gangrene set in, Pa thought).

"Tell Sylvester to be a good boy and he shall be well rewarded when I return" meant your grandfather who was then 6 years old (Pa was born Dec.23, 1842). But his father did not return, and only those who may be far from home and family with little chance to get back can appreciate his anxiety to see again his wife and little children.

"I send you these letters to be bound securely and kept for future reference. There is a copy for each one of you, and also for you father and mother, who can preserve the copies for those who are as yet too young to keep them.

"A merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all from Your Uncle Chris."

OHIO REVOLUTIONARY PENSIONERS FROM MARYLAND

Charlene S. Dixson*

This list of pensioners was found in a typed manuscript titled MARYLAND REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSIONERS, WAR OF 1812 & INDIAN WARS by Mrs.Carl W. McGhee, Washington DC, 1952. The manuscript was located at the Contra Costa County Library in California. There is no explanation concerning the arrangement, and the author did not fully identify the sources used, although reference is made in the text to "Maryland Pensions Volume 2 U.S.Pension Roll 1835" and "Maryland Revolutionary Soldiers - Pensions from Volume 3 U.S.War Dept. Pension Report 1835—from Maryland." Undoubtedly, further information can be obtained on these soldiers from the microfilmed copies of National Archives Pension Files. The list was thought to be useful, since it identified those Maryland soldiers who were in Ohio. The Ohio county from which pension application was made is listed in the right hand column.

OHIO NAMES IN OREGON MAKE IT A NEIGHBOR

Rance Hill*

The following article appeared in THE MAIL TRIBUNE, Medford Oregon, on Thursday, 21 Feb 1985, Section B, p1. Permission has been granted by the author to reprint the article. Rance Hill is a native of Ohio, living for many years in Akron, and was a professor of sociology at Kent State University from 1960-1983.

What states are Oregon's neighbors? Would you believe Ohio? So many Ohio place names appear in Oregon that "neighboring" seems as good a term as any, though these states are 2,500 miles apart.

In the same way that Ashland, Oregon, was named after Ashland, Ohio, by Abel HELMAN in 1852, many other of Ohio's cities and towns have their counterparts on the Oregon landscape.

Wagner Creek, just northwest of Ashland, is named for Jacob WAGNER of Ohio, who settled there in 1852. The community of Talent, close by, was once known as Wagner, but postal authorities renamed it for the man who platted the town, even against A.P. TALENT's wishes.

Dayton, Oregon, was settled in the winter of 1848-49 by Andrew SMITH and named after his former home of Dayton, Ohio. The town became a post office in 1857 and was further immortalized in 1877 with the incorporation of the narrow gauge Dayton, Sheridan and Grande Rounde Railroad Company.

Befitting the independence of early Oregonians, this narrow gauge line in the Willamette Valley was built to reach towns ignored by the Oregon and California Railroad Company, and was constructed without the use of the federal land grants. The 20 miles of trackage from Dayton to Sheridan symbolized this independence; though soon for lack of cash flow, the line was taken over by its creditors and acquired by the Oregonian Railway Company, Ltd.

Joseph GASTON, who had constructed the trackage in 1878, leaves his name in Gaston, in Washington County. Ohio thus reaped two mementos out of one incident in Oregon's history.

Featured in another railroad squabble was the town of Scio, named by William McKINNEY in 1860 for his former home. The determined folks of Scio, Oregon, having been by-passed by the Oregonian Railway Company, built their own two-mile railroad to connect with the Oregonian at West Scio. By 1890, they had their own little station and the services of "Old Betsy," a stubby four-wheeler which pulled a flat car from Scio to West Scio, carrying both passengers and freight. The state inspectors forced the railroad to abandon the line in 1904, spoiling the fun, but Ohio managed to get two mementos again.

Bellefontaine, Ohio, became Bellfountain, Oregon, at the behest of Benton County residents who had previously lived in that Ohio town. The cussedness of Ohioans who would give their town a French name but pronounce it with American directness was thus finally set right by the reasonableness of the Oregonian transplants. Unfortunately, Bellfountain is no longer a post office, though Bellefontaine continues to grace Ohio.

Will G. STEEL, a prominent Oregon historian and conservationist, brought his native town of Stafford, Ohio, in 1872 and also lent his name to Steel Bay on the north shore of Crater Lake, named for him because of his successful efforts to create a national park in the area.

Many other topographic features have Ohio roots. Cooper Mountain, four miles southwest of Beaverton, is named for Perry COOPER who was born in Ohio and settled on the slopes in 1853.

Also near Beaverton is Sexton Mountain, named for Edward S. SEXTON who was born in Ohio in 1822 and settled near the mountain.

Garfield Peak, on the south rim of Crater Lake, was named by Will G. STEEL for James R. GARFIELD, son of the Ohio-born President, in 1907. Mr.Garfield, as secretary of the Interior, was the first Cabinet officer to visit Crater Lake. He fared better than his father, for the Clackamas County village of Garfield named for him is no longer a post office. The moral of that story is that mountains will last longer than towns!

But even the names of mountains can erode, as A.BENTLEY of Ohio who had a Crater Lake peak named for him when he visited in 1871 found out. This peak was renamed the Watchman in 1886 by a party of topographic engineers during soundings of the lake.

Though mountains may be at risk, cities are more prone to disappear. Cleveland, named by F.M.GOOD in 1874 after a flour mill in that Ohio city, was discontinued as a post office in 1923.

A.C.R.SHAW named his town Cincinnati in 1853, because he fancied the site resembled that of the Ohio city. The territorial legislature thought otherwise and incorporated it as Eola in 1856, and sealed it with a post office in 1857.

Smaller Ohio towns suffered the same fate. Independence in Benton County, settled in the late 1860s, became Granite in 1877, not because of any sensitivity for the Ohio town near Cleveland, Ohio, but to prevent confusion with the same name town in Polk County.

Hudson, near Akron, lost its namesake in Oregon to a lady in 1900, when the town was renamed Leona after the granddaughter of a prominent resident.

Another lady figured in the naming of Vernonia. Settled by Oziah CHERRINGTON of Ohio in 1876, the post office was named for his daughter still back in Ohio.

On the other hand, some towns in Oregon lived after their namesakes in Ohio had disappeared. Hoaglin in Douglas County was named for a community in Van Wert County, Ohio. Hoaglin, Oregon, was still around in 1926, but the Ohio town had gone. Unfortunately, by the present era, the Oregon town has joined its namesake.

When the Toledo post office was established in 1868, Joseph D. GRAHAM, son of the founder John GRAHAM, said, "We are homesick for Ohio. We will call this place Toledo."

As Lewis A. McArthur points out in his classic "Oregon Geographic Names," the source for much of this article, many eastern place names appear during the period from 1840 to 1890, generally for sentimental reasons. In this way, these Ohio names were given a new transfusion of life on the Oregon landscape while part of their hearts may have been left in Ohio, the sttlers' souls were in Oregon to stay.

CIVIL WAR PENSIONERS

It seems hard to believe, with the Civil War having ended 127 years ago....but there are still Civil War Pensioners on the government rolls!! In 1987, the statistics reported by the Veterans' Administration office in Cleveland are:

SURVIVING SPOUSES - 14

SURVIVING CHILDREN - 64

One must remember that many soldiers lived to be very elderly men, and in many cases, they married much younger women. These "May-December" marriages were often undertaken with the purpose of obtaining the pension.

As of 30 Sep 1985, the veteran population living in the U.S. and Puerto Rico was estimated at 27,839,000 with Ohio reported as having 1,330,000 veterans.
